Clinton Art Rocks LIVE Auction
Thursday, September 7 at 7 pm
Gazebo on the Clinton Village Green

The Clinton Chamber of Commerce is proud to bring Art Rocks to the Village again this summer. Art Rocks is an art auction that pairs local artists and businesses to create an outdoor gallery of functional art. Artists are selected and then hand paint custom-designed Adirondack rocking chairs, and the local business sponsors agree to keep the chair at their business from July through August. The chairs are rotated around the village at the various sponsor locations, and bids are accepted and updated on the Clinton Chamber of Commerce website (www.clintonnychamber.org). New this year, five Adirondack garden benches were added to the 18 rockers, for a total of 23 items up for auction.

Art Rocks concludes with a Live Auction scheduled for September 7th at 7:00pm on the Village Green. Everyone is invited to attend the live auction and take part in the excitement. If you are not able to attend the Live Auction, you can place a Reserve Bid, which will allow the Clinton Chamber to bid on your behalf at the Live Auction, at a limit you set.

After the Live Auction, the Clinton Chamber of Commerce and the artists split the selling price of the items. This popular community event is made possible with the support of the local business sponsors and the work of these talented artists. The Clinton Chamber of Commerce thanks everyone for the continued support of Art Rocks!

From now until the live auction, all the Adirondack rockers and benches are on display along West Park Row in the Village of Clinton. On Thursday, September 7th, the chairs and benches will be on display at the Clinton Farmers Market in preparation for the Live Auction being held on the Village Green at 7:00pm. For more information about Art Rocks and to place a bid, visit www.clintonnychamber.org.
