Clinton Art Rocks Returns in 2021!

Starting in late June, the Adirondack rockers will be on display throughout the Village of Clinton and beyond. We will map out the “Art Rocks Stroll” so you can take in the complete outdoor gallery. This popular community event is made possible with the support of local business sponsors and the creative work of talented local artists.

The chairs are rotated around the village at the various sponsor locations, and bids are accepted and updated on the Clinton Chamber of Commerce website (<https://clintonnychamber.org/art-rocks>). This year we are adding a limited number of 3/4 scale children’s rockers to the program!

Contact event coordinator, John Costanzo at john.costanzo@proforma.com with any questions.

Meet one of our Major Events Sponsors!

History: Founded in 1793 as the Hamilton-Oneida Academy; chartered in 1812 as Hamilton College; third oldest college established in New York State.

Location: Hamilton's 1,350-acre campus is situated on a hilltop overlooking the picturesque village of Clinton.

Namesake: Alexander Hamilton, U.S. statesman, first secretary of the U.S. Treasury, member of the first Board of Trustees of the Hamilton-Oneida Academy.

College Motto: Know Thyself

Hamilton's Hometown: Clinton, N.Y.

If you have any questions regarding the Clinton Art & Music Festival, please contact event coordinator, Rachel Bartunek at clintonartandmusicfest@gmail.com.

We hope you all enjoy our flower barrels. They are making our village vibrant and enticing visitors to stop and shop! Please help us keep them clear of litter and give Them a drink if we have a hot dry summer. Our garden club members, with the help of the DPW, are watering every week so introduce yourself when you see them.

Watch for our table at the Clinton Farmers Market on June 17 & 24 and July 8 & 15. We will be selling tickets to our July 17 garden tour then.

Remember to spruce up for "best in Village" award in the fall.
